EDA CONSORTIUM ELECTS OFFICERS AND BOARD MEMBERS

SAN JOSE, California, June 9, 2014—The Electronic Design Automation Consortium (EDAC) announced today that it has elected the Board of Directors and elected officers to serve the organization through spring 2016. Lip-Bu Tan, President and CEO of Cadence Design Systems, and John Kibarian, President, CEO, and co-founder of PDF Solutions, Inc., were elected as co-Chairs through 2016.

In addition to the officers listed above, the EDA Consortium Board includes one new member and six continuing members:

- Raul Camposano, CEO, Nimbic, Inc
- Edmund Cheng, President and CEO, Gradient Design Automation
- Aart de Geus, Chairman and CEO, Synopsys, Inc
- Dean Drako, President and CEO, IC Manage
- Grant Pierce, CEO, Sonics (new)
- Walden C. Rhines, Chairman and CEO, Mentor Graphics Corporation
- Simon Segars, CEO, ARM

“As the semiconductor and software content in systems including automobiles, mobile devices, wearables and other internet-connected things continues to grow, EDA and IP become even more important to enabling a changing world,” said Lip-Bu Tan. “This is a very exciting time to be in our industry, and I look forward to serving alongside John Kibarian as co-Chairman as we help the industry to grow and realize its full potential in the value chain of this highly integrated, interconnected world.”

“Advancing technologies present significant challenges to the entire semiconductor ecosystem,” added John Kibarian. “I look forward to working with Lip-Bu Tan as co-Chairman, and the rest of the EDAC board, to focus the EDAC mindshare on addressing our common challenges.”
